HULT PRIZE ON-CAMPUS PROGRAM

Empowering the Next Generation of Social Entrepreneurs

01

About Hult Prize

The Hult Prize is the world's largest student competition for social entrepreneurship. Often referred to as the "Nobel Prize for Students," it challenges young innovators to solve pressing global issues aligned with the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Through our On-Campus event, students create, pitch, and scale impactful business ideas to compete on a global stage.

CALL FOR STUDENT COORDINATORS

HULT PRIZE ON-CAMPUS

LEAD | CONNECT | CREATE IMPACT

01 | About the Role

We are looking for 2 Student Coordinators preferably from two different academic year from the same department to represent the Hult Prize On-Campus initiative. As a Student Coordinator, you will serve as the primary link between the central organizing committee and your department's students and faculty.

02 | Key Responsibilities

Departmental Outreach

Promote the Hult Prize competition across your department's classrooms, groups, and social channels.

Student Engagement

Connect interested students, assist individual innovators in finding cross-departmental team members, and answer basic queries.

Coordination & Feedback

Share official updates from the core team and convey department-specific needs back to us.

03 | What's in it for You?

Official Certificate of Recognition

from the IIC and Hult Prize organizing team.

Leadership & Networking

Work directly with faculty coordinators, core event leads, and multi-disciplinary teams across campus.

Skill Building

Gain hands-on experience in event management, peer leadership, and university-wide campaign execution.

04 | How to Apply

Eligibility: Open to students from all years and academic departments.

Selection: Nominations can be submitted via the official registration link/QR code below.
